

Pastoral Outreach Worker

St Just in Roseland Church and St Mawes Church are looking for someone to help us actively engage with our local community. Building bridges and strengthening links in the parish is a key aspect of our mission. We hope that the Pastoral Outreach Worker will be an ambassador of our churches and be active in all corners of the community.

Hours: 10 hours per week (flexible)

Salary: £10 - £14 per hour depending on experience

Contract duration: 2 years

The role includes: Providing companionship and support to people in need, home visits, supervising our pastoral volunteers, liaising with other agencies in the community and setting up a self-sustaining project or group.

It is a genuine occupational requirement for the post holder to be a committed Christian with gifts of compassion and patience. The successful candidate will be able to relate without judgement to people from all backgrounds, be a reflective practitioner with robust boundaries, able to respect strict confidentiality and have excellent communication and listening skills with a genuine concern for people.

The successful applicant will need a clean driving licence and access to their own transport, O levels/GCSEs to include Maths and English, IT skills (email and word processing) and be willing to undertake initial and ongoing training for pastoral development and safeguarding.

Application closing date: 20th September 2018

Applications can be sent by post to:
